

Kenneth Trump
Keynote Speaker – May 2, 2013

Kenneth S. Trump, M.P.A., President of the National School Safety and Security Services, has more than 25 years of K-12 school security specific experience. Ken's experience includes serving as a secondary school officer and investigator, and later as founding supervisor of the Youth Gang Unit, for the Cleveland Public School District's Safety and Security Division. He subsequently served as a suburban Cleveland school security director for the ninth largest Ohio public school system, where he also served as assistant director of a federal-funded gang task for three Cleveland suburbs. Ken has trained and consulted on school security and emergency preparedness issues with school and public safety officials from all 50 states and Canada.

Ken is the author of three books and more than 80 articles on school security and crisis issues. He has appeared on all national TV and cable news networks, and has been quoted in the top 50 daily U.S.

newspapers. Ken is a four-time invited Congressional expert witness on school security and emergency preparedness issues, testified on bullying before the U.S. Commission on Civil Rights, and was an invited attendee at the 2006 White House Conference on School Safety.